Are you struggling to afford food?
Local food security resources are available for those in need.

Resources

How do I qualify?

- Community Action Services and Food Bank
  - If visiting the food bank, you must bring personal documents for review (see website). You will visit with a trained counselor to discuss your situation before receiving supplies. No appointment necessary.

- Tabitha’s Way Local Food Pantry
  - If visiting the food pantry, you must bring personal documents for review (see website). You must also plan your visit to allow for 30 minutes of processing time. No appointment necessary.

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
  - You can apply for the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program online or at the local Department of Workforce Services office. You will then make an appointment with a specialist to discuss your case.

- Women, Infants & Children Nutrition Program (WIC)
  - You can apply for the Women, Infants, and Children program, which provides food and nutrition counseling to low-income women. You must call to make an appointment at the local WIC clinic in order to apply.

- Food & Care Coalition
  - You can receive nutritional meals which are served daily to fixed income families and individuals or those affected by tragedy living in Utah County.
